Abdominal and Perineal Approach, Simultaneous, in Operations for Imperforate Anus with Atresia of the Rectum and Rectosigmoid, 552. Abdominal Injuries, Penetrating, the Management of, 1092. Abdominal Operations, Upper, Prolonged Intercostal Nerve Block in, 136. Abscess, Tuberculous, Intrapericardial, Constrictive Pericarditis with, Treated by Streptomycin, 685. Accidental Operative Transplantation of Benign Giant Cell Tumor, 1232. Acetabulum, Fractures of the, 1150. Acromioclavicular Dislocation, 98. Acute Cholecystitis, 816. Acute Pancreatitis, 557. Alginate as Hemostatics, Experimental Studies of, 1165. Alimentary Canal, a New Method of Restoring Continuity of the, in Cases of Congenital Atresia of the Esophagus with Tracheo-esophageal Fistula not Treated by Immediate Primary Anastomosis, 757. American Surgery, the Changing Scene in, 666. Amputations, Mid-leg, for Gangrene in the Diabetic, 503. Anastomosis, and One-stage Resection of the Colon, 12; Immediate, Primary, a New Method of Restoring Continuity of the Alimentary Canal in Cases of Congenital Atresia of the Esophagus with Tracheo-esophageal Fistula not Treated by, 757. Anatomical Observations on the Lumbar Sympathetics with Evaluation of Sympathectomies in Organic Peripheral Vascular Disease, 953. Anatomy of the Peri-esophageal Vagi, 128. Anesthesia, Spinal, the Subarachnoid Use of Vasoconstrictors in, 338. Aneurysm, and Arteriovenous Fistula, the Problem of Maintaining the Continuity of the Artery in the Surgery of, 207; and Coarctation of the Aorta, 655; Following Surgical Procedures, 769; of the Left Common Iliac Artery Secondary to a Traumatic Arteriovenous Fistula of the Left Popliteal Vessels, 780; Traumatic, of the Subscapular Artery, 569. Angiofibroma, Juvenile Nasopharyngeal, 513. Anus, Imperforate, with Atresia of the Rectum and Rectosigmoid, a Simultaneous Abdominal and Perineal Approach in Operations for, 552. Aorta, Abdominal, Ligation and Division of the, for Metallic Embolus from the Heart, 1; and the Pulmonary Artery, Complete Transposition of the, 385; Coarctation and Aneurysm of the, 655; Surgical Treatment of the Infantile Type of Coarctation of the, 1119. Aortic Bifurcation, the Syndrome of Thrombotic Obliteration of the, 193. Appendix, Mucocele of the, with Myxoglobulosis, 171. Arterial Murmur, "Functional", Subclavian: Possible Relation to Scalenus Anticus Syndrome, Costoclavicular Compression, or the Neurovascular Syndrome of Wright, 688. Arterial Supply of the Distal Colon Pertinent to Abdominoperineal Proctosigmoidectomy, with Preservation of the Sphincter Mechanism, 28. Arteriovenous Fistulae and Aneurysms, the Problem of Maintaining the Continuity of the Artery in the Surgery of, 207. Artery, Continuity of the, Problem of Maintaining, in the Surgery of Aneurysms and Arteriovenous Fistulae, 207; Left, Common, Iliac, Aneurysm of the, Secondary to a Traumatic Arteriovenous Fistula of the Left Popliteal Vessels, 780; Subscapular, Traumatic Aneurysm of the, 569. Atresia, Congenital, of the Esophagus with Tracheo-esophageal Fistula not Treated by Immediate Primary Anastomosis, a New Method of Restoring Continuity of the Alimentary Canal in Cases of, 757; of the Rectum and Rectosigmoid, a Simultaneous Abdominal and Perineal Approach in Operations for Imperforate Anus with, 552.
